

SOUTH AFRICA

Combining breathtaking scenery, incredible wildlife, year-round sunny climate, true unity and legendary hospitality, South Africa can cater for any educational tour requirements.

CAPE TOWN

Also known as the 'Mother City', Cape Town with its majestic Table Mountain backdrop, is one of the world's most beautiful cities. The Victoria and Alfred Waterfront serve as the hub to many tourist attractions with excursions leaving daily for Robben Island. Visit Cape of Good Hope, National Gallery, District Six and Kirstenbosch Gardens to name just a few historic attractions. Complimenting this, the city offers stunning beaches, jackass penguins, and superb wineries! From Cape Town you can travel up the West Coast which is home to beach resorts, game parks and endless sunshine.

JOHANNESBURG

For a long time after it's birth as a gold rush boomtown in 1886, Johannesburg had to fight hard to shed its reputation for being a bawdy, brawling tent town. Today, little more than 100 years later, the city and suburbs have taken on a certain refinement, almost elegance. The Johannesburg and surrounds of the 1990's is alive with world-class theatre, art, entertainment, shopping and events of many kinds, making it a warm-hearted area that lives with gusto and has earned the title of South Africa's 'Golden City'.

PRETORIA

50kms from Johannesburg, Pretoria is South Africa's administrative capital and fused with history. With several sights that must be seen including the Voortrekker Monument and Union Buildings, this is a city with deep roots in the countries Afrikaner-dominated past. Located close enough to Johannesburg's international airport to provide a great base for exploring Gauteng.

DURBAN

The gateway to the Kwazulu-Natal Province and famed for its white sandy beaches and superb surfing in the warm Indian Ocean. There are plenty of activities to do in Durban including a visit to the Botanical Gardens, uShaka Marine World and the Sharks Board. The Umhlanga holiday resort is a vibrant area close to shops and restaurants, while in driving reach of some fabulous game reserves.
